

ONE DAY'S DOINGS IN SPORTING WORLD

Odds and Ends in Various Fields of Athletic Activity

(Special from United Press.)

New York, Jan. 28.—The climax of all Marathons will be run here on Saturday night when the Olympic champion, the Italian, will meet the American champion, the Englishman, in a race for the title of world champion. The race will be run on the Longboat, the Italian, who won the Olympic Marathon, will meet the American champion, the Englishman, in a race for the title of world champion. The race will be run on the Longboat, the Italian, who won the Olympic Marathon, will meet the American champion, the Englishman, in a race for the title of world champion.

On February 1, Longboat and Shrubbs will meet in a race in this city. This race was originally scheduled for January 19, but an injury to Shrubbs' foot caused a postponement. The injured number is now in good shape and the Englishman will be in good shape next week.

Hayes and Dorando will meet in Chicago on February 19. The Italian Olympic champion was beaten by Dorando in this city some time ago and he has been taking excellent care of himself and is now in the same good form he was in when he won the English event. Hayes claims that his defeat by Dorando was due to lack of condition. Although Dorando was beaten in number of races since he defeated Hayes, nobody has forgotten the time the Italian won.

Boston, Jan. 28.—Harvard hockeyists today have another win to their credit as the result of defeating Lehigh University of Montreal in the stadium yesterday by 3 to 0. The game was hard fought and was in the last half of the second half. The Canadians were clearly outplayed. Harvard's team work being much superior.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—That President Pullman of the National League will not let umpires dictate to him as some of the players seem to be doing to the managers, was indicated in the last part of the O'Day's received notice, that unless he signed by Saturday the contract that had been mailed to him, he might arrange to draw his weekly stipend from other sources.

O'Day says that the terms of his contract are not satisfactory.

POLO TONIGHT AT BROOKLAWN RINK

Come with your voice and cheer for Polo is here. The Brooklawn rink promises you a corker to-night and they are a strong cup of tea when it comes to putting the ball into the cage. Hoot and yell out at the Brooklawn rink as it is a big place and your voice will be heard. New bleachers, new lights, all the comforts of home and admission only 15 cents. Prize drawing every night and a splendid prize to be won. Will you face the best of the crowd that goes to see polo played that is worth a journey of miles. Humphreys of New Haven, the team that it took an entire period last night to beat, will be the main attraction. The preliminary will be a battle for first place in the city league—St. Joseph's vs. West Ends.

BASKET BALL AT ARMORY

There will be two games of basketball at the armory Saturday afternoon. The H. S. girls' team have engaged the "Mammoth" five, a girls' team from Harrison, N. Y., and the All-Army team will play the last game. Dances will follow the game. Cotter's orchestra furnishing the music.

SECRETARY O'BROURKE'S CALL

Secretary James H. O'Bourke of the Connecticut League, has sent out notices of a meeting of the league directors to be held in New Haven at the Garden, Monday, Feb. 1. The revision of the constitution is to come up.

COLE'S PETS WON WAGERS.

An exciting match game of duck pins was rolled Monday evening at the Washington Park. The contest was between two teams, styling themselves "Tienery's Inklingers" and "Cole's Pets," which resulted in a victory for the latter by four pins. The bowler for the "losers" team was a pronounced feature, he making no less than eight strikes, but but for his bowling the score would have been different. The game, which was a good game, was "off his feet" which the result plainly showed.

Cole, of the winners, was accompanied to the alleys by his faithful friends. This is the first of a series of three games to be played, the losers paying for a box at Polli's and a dinner at the Stratfield.

PRIVATE ORPHAN ASYLUM SWEEP BY FLAMES

New Haven, Jan. 28.—Nine infants in arms were saved by volunteer firemen today when fire from some unknown cause swept through the private orphan asylum of Mrs. Beeson in the North End. The building is a two-story structure, the volunteers, though unable to save the building or the one next to it, got out its precious inmates. The loss is about $5,000.

Wheeler Keeps Them Guessing

It was rumored in real estate circles today that Samuel H. Wheeler is negotiating for the purchase of the Bradlee building, which fronts on Main street and extends from Chapel Street to Congress street. It is also indicated that Mr. Wheeler has negotiated for the purchase of the L. E. Currier property, which fronts on Elm street and Golden Hill streets. This gossip was occasioned by Mr. Wheeler being seen on the roof of the Curtis block some time ago.

THOMSKI EXCUSED, BUT SLAPPED WRONG GIRL

Mike Thomski was tried for assault on Annie Bonomo, in the city court this morning. The case was a case of assault with a deadly weapon. The jury found Thomski guilty and sentenced him to six months in the city jail. The case was a case of assault with a deadly weapon. The jury found Thomski guilty and sentenced him to six months in the city jail.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS.

Hartford, Jan. 28.—At the annual business meeting of the State Poultry Association today George A. McGraw of Willington was re-elected president. Changes were made in several other offices among them being new members of the executive committee for New Haven and Fairfield counties. The members are George B. Smith and A. B. Brundage. There are 27 members in the association and $300 in the treasury.

STATE SENATE'S SHORT SESSION

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 28.

Under suspension of the rules Chas. E. Chapman was appointed commissioner of Middlesex County. Among the acts introduced were the following: One providing for a general closed season on woodcock and partridge for a term of years; resolutions naming Edward S. Roberts, Democrat, member of the state auditing board (referred to finance committee); appropriating $30,000 for additions to the W. R. C. Home at Cromwell; providing for the popular nomination of United States Senator by having their names placed on the ballot at state elections and having the legislature then do the will of the people; reducing the price of dog tax tags from 7 cents to 5 cents (referred to committee); petitions for Elias Howe Post, G. A. R., Bridgeport, and Hobbie Post, Stamford, for the state to buy the Elbridge collection of war relics.

Among the nominations of judges referred to the committee on judiciary were those of Judge Matthews and Deputy Attorney General of the New Haven city court and Judge Arnold and Deputy Judge Shea of the Willimantic police court.

The House voted to meet at 12:30 Tuesday and 11:15 Wednesdays and Thursdays and adjourned.

In the Senate a resolution was introduced naming Edward M. Yeomans of Danbury the Democratic state auditor for which place he was beaten in the Democratic caucus but it was immediately referred to the committee on finance so the contest between Yeomans and Roberts for the position is now smothered in committee.

The Senate appointed several new committees as follows: Senate members of committee of state library, Senators Day and Abner, Senate committee on contingent expenses, Higgins, Turner and Day; executive committee on nominations, Senators Brooks, Blake and Lee.

An act was introduced providing for a state bond issue to cover the expenses of public works taken up two years ago, as follows: Good roads, libraries, armory and arsenals and doctors. These bonds are to be dated April 1, 1909, and to run for 25 years at 3½ per cent. The Senate voted to convene at 11:30 on all session days and adjourned until Tuesday.

FATAL TRAIN WRECK IN INDIANA

New Albany, Ind., Jan. 28.—Ten persons were fatally injured and 40 injured when Train No. 9 on the Southern Railway due here at 12:20 p. m. was wrecked here at the entrance to the tunnel shortly before 12 today. A special train with nurses and doctors aboard left here at 12:45 for the scene.

HARBOR LINE VETO COMING

It is reported today that Mayor Lee will veto the amended report of the committee on harbor improvements created by the city council but that he would not present the veto at the next meeting of the council.

Three Appeals From Probate Are Withdrawn

A Civil Superior court jury filed into their seats this morning expecting a big day's work, but their services were not required. The first case on the docket was the appeal from probate of Ada Lockwood of Stamford, as the estate of Sarah Lockwood of Stamford. This case took four weeks in the probate court before it was settled and was appealed. The appeal was withdrawn.

POSTMASTERS OF STATE HERE TODAY

Today at the local postoffice the executive committee of the Connecticut Postmasters' Association met in this city the guests of Postmaster W. H. Marigold when arrangements were made for the annual meeting of the state body which will be held at Meriden, Feb. 22. The postmasters here today were of Ansonia, Meriden, Torrington and Glastonbury. These gentlemen are the officers of the association and they also comprise the executive committee.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Connecticut Library Association will be held in New Haven, Wednesday, Feb. 3, at 10:30 a. m. The association is composed of libraries in the state and is interested in library work and especially welcome. Addresses during the day will be made by the librarians of some of the principal universities of the east. Visits will be made to all the college buildings, all parties to be conducted by guides.

UNCONTESTED DIVORCE SUITS FOR TO-MORROW.

Six uncontested divorce cases will be heard by Judge Gager of the Civil Superior Court to-morrow. The cases to be tried are: Wilhelm Schurer vs. Stephen Schurer, Annie E. Laughlin vs. Samuel M. Laughlin; Flora S. Merritt vs. Chas. E. Merritt; Caroline L. Haines vs. Albert M. Haines; Annie L. LaMontagne vs. Frank H. LaMontagne; and William Acker vs. Jennie A. Acker.

MISS STERLING IS SHORT SESSION

Pretty Young Whose Sanity is Vouched for Returns to Worry Town Authorities.

Blanche Bernice Sterling, who was discharged from custody at police headquarters yesterday afternoon, proceeded to the railroad station where she remained for three hours. She amused herself by appearing on the platform, apparently to take down the numbers of the freight cars as they passed. Her conduct attracted the attention of Patrolman Marco and he reported to headquarters, asking for instructions.

Marco was much surprised to learn that the lady had been at headquarters and had been discharged.

She took a later train for Monroe and passed the night with friends there.

Sheriff Frank Olmstead of Monroe, called on Supt. Brennan, of the Hartford Department, yesterday and inquired as to what disposition had been made of Miss Sterling's case and was surprised to learn she had been allowed to return to Monroe.

A casual conversation with her yesterday, would raise no doubt as to her sanity. Everyone who conversed with her was absolutely convinced of her sanity. She is bright and intelligent.

With all this it is difficult to explain to citizens of Monroe, the fact that she sat on a doorstep in Monroe last winter, waiting as she said for a young lady who was in the house to come out, because she had taken her fellow from her some time before.

Over a year ago the girl called on Supt. Birmingham and after a pleasant conversation in which he was much interested, calmly informed him that she had taken a man in pieces on Park avenue that day.

She described the details of the act with horrible accuracy and told how she had cut off his arms and legs.

The superintendent then asked up his mind that it was time to get rid of her. What action will be taken by the Monroe authorities has not been decided.

Miss Sterling's case is the one topic of conversation among the hills. It is difficult to talk over the telephone to Monroe without hearing receivers on the line click as some interested eavesdropper butts in.

MARIGOLD TO BE TOASTMASTER OF M'KNLEY BANQUET

Tomorrow evening at the Hotel Stratfield the annual banquet of the McKinley Association will be held and it is expected that 300 diners will attend. Postmaster W. H. Marigold will be toastmaster, as he is president of the association.

The principal speaker will be John G. Capers, United States Internal Revenue Commissioner, who was a close personal friend of the martyred President.

Others who have been assigned to talk are Mayor Lee, Stiles Judson, Lieut. Governor Weeks, former Lieutenant Governor Lake, and Rev. Mr. Crafts, pastor of Christ church.

The officers of the association are: President, William H. Marigold, Bridgeport; Treasurer, Simon Pease, Bridgeport; Secretary, Frederick A. Bartlett, Bridgeport; Assistant Secretary, William A. Redden, Bridgeport.

Executive Committee—Sidney B. Hawley, Brookfield; John Q. Phils, New Haven; Henry Roraback, Canaan; Edward J. Garvan, Hartford; Norris Lippitt, Norwich; Charles A. Gates, Willimantic; Justin Holman, Saybrook; William H. East, Willimantic; Frederick B. Fallon, Bridgeport.

Reception Committee—Col. Matthew H. Rogers, chairman, the officers and Executive Committee assisted by Mayor Henry Lee, Allan W. Paige, Alfred B. Beers, Col. Elmer H. Havens, Fred Enos, George E. Hill, Senator Philip L. Holzer, Senator Thomas Arnold, Senator Moses Manwaring, Representative Fayette C. Clark, Frank T. Staples, John T. King, August H. Bullard, William R. Brown, John S. Cullen, Ernest D. Bee, Thomas H. Macdonald, Marcus S. Reynolds, Dr. Charles C. Godfrey, Speaker Elmore S. Banks, Dr. G. L. Ford, George S. Eames, Edward L. Graves, Horace H. Jackson.

MEN WILL BE HEARD

The members of the police and fire departments who are agitated over the changes in the pension laws proposed by Alderman Tague have secured an opinion from a lawyer to the effect that the legislature will do nothing to abolish the present pension act unless it is referred to the people.

The present pension funds, which the members of the departments have created out of their own pockets without the aid of the city, were created upon a referendum to the people. The lawyer whom the firemen and policemen have talked with states that the issue will have to be referred back to the people.

As an illustration he said, "Suppose the city should vote to purchase the water works one year and the next the Common Council should want to sell them at a profit. If the legislature would act without giving the people a chance to pass upon the change.

The members of the fire and police departments will be given an audience, Sunday, before President Hill of the Police Board, President Bullard of the Fire Board and Alderman Tague.

The firemen understand there is a movement on foot to change the amount the men pensioned in the future should receive, without changing the amount the men already pensioned are receiving.

They claim there are men in the department with longer terms of service than the men pensioned, and they want the men already pensioned as they are paying the bills themselves.

MR. TIMONEY'S NEW CHARGE

Frank H. Timoney who has been local agent for the Eckart Brothers Brewery for the last 12 years has been charged with the falsification of the charge of the Flanagan Brewery interests in this city. Mr. Timoney will have entire charge of the Flanagan interests locally and will be located in Howard avenue.

Terrence Cassidy died early this morning at his home, 50 Grove street, after a week's illness of bronchitis and pneumonia. The deceased is survived by a widow, one son, Eugene Cassidy, proprietor of a restaurant on Cannon street, and two daughters, Catherine and Mrs. Annie N'chois. The deceased was a member of the Batoon, Cole & Burnham Sick Benefit Association and Court Pennuonock, of the same name.

The funeral of John W. Edwards was largely attended this afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock from the residence of his son, Charles Edwards, 1515 East Main street, Rev. Earl Kenyon officiating.

MORE REVISIONS TONIGHT.

The Charter Revision committee of the Common Council will meet this evening for the purpose of further discussing proposed amendments to the charter, which will be presented to the council, Monday night.

EX-ALDERMAN DOWLING IS CRITICALLY ILL

Friends of Ex-Alderman Michael Dowling of Liberty street are concerned because of the critical character of his illness. Very little hopes are entertained for his recovery. Mr. Dowling is one of the veteran marketmen of the Park City and for many years conducted business in East Bridgeport, first in Crescent avenue and latterly in Barnum avenue. For some years he has been in the employ of Bommos & Blitz. Mr. Dowling was one of the original members of the board of apportionment and in politics has always been a steadfast Democrat.

PENURY REIGNED IN NEW MILFORD

The New Milford authorities asked the local police yesterday to apprehend one, Peter Golsky, who is charged with leaving that town without notifying them of his intention. It is said that Peter gave a dance in the town hall and when he went away he forgot to settle up his indebtedness. Capt. Arnold telephoned the police there that the man was held here, but the economical sleuths of the valley town refused to pay for the message. As no charge could be made against Golsky he was allowed to go. Later the New Milford authorities telephoned that they would come for Golsky, but were informed that he had gone.

LONG SENTENCE METED OUT TO A NORWICH WOMAN

(Special from United Press.)
Norwich, Jan. 28.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Addie Burns, charged with two serious offences in an alleged white slave transaction in which May Burns, a 16 year old New Haven girl is alleged to have been the victim, yesterday returned a verdict of guilty as indicted and Judge Case sentenced her to 12 to 20 years in the state prison. The defense asked for a stay of execution and Judge Case took the matter under advisement, his judgment to be made in three weeks.

CONTEMPORARY CLUB TO BE ADDRESSED BY FORMER EPISCOPALIAN CLERGYMAN

It was announced today that the Contemporary Club would gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Godfrey, 486 Washington avenue, Feb. 6, at 8:15 p. m., where they would be addressed by Dr. Thorstein E. Green whose subject will be "The Key to the Twentieth Century, A Study of American Dynamics." Dr. Green was formerly rector of a prominent Episcopal church in the West and is a forceful speaker. He is national chaplain of the S. A. R.

BRANDEE CLAIMS RENT

William S. Brandegee, the local automobile merchant, has brought suit against the Cambridge Mfg. Co., of this city, for $1,000, to recover back rent which it is alleged the defendants owe Brandegee. In Oct. 21, 1906, the Cambridge Mfg. Co., rented a factory space, near the corner of George and Oak streets, from Brandegee for the monthly rental of $30. It is claimed the company has not paid any rent since occupying the building, a period of 27 months.

L. R. Buddington Seeks Divorce For Desertion

The application for divorce of Louis R. Buddington, of this city, against Josephine L. Buddington, was filed in the Civil Superior court, this morning. The couple were married Nov. 30, 1891. It is alleged in the suit that Mrs. Buddington, who was a Miss Eichel, deserted the plaintiff, May 1, 1902.

NO REFERENDUM OF SEWER SCHEME

Mayor Lee has stated that he believes the people should vote upon the question of bonding for $1,750,000 to pay for a new sewer system. Nevertheless up till this time the charter amendments offered to the committee on revision do not contain a clause permitting the question to be submitted to the people.
